NOT INDEPENDENT

While we will always seek to meet our legal obligations to act in our clients' best interests within the meaning of section 961B of the Corporations Act 2001, we do not fall within the definition of "independent" under section 923A. The reason we do not fall within this definition is because we give our clients the option to allow life insurance companies to pay some of our advisers' commissions for the services that we provide to our clients rather than for us to be required to directly invoice our clients and for our clients to be required to pay us directly. We remain committed to continue to give our clients this important choice.

Conflicted remuneration and non-conflicted remuneration

From 1 July 2013 the new “Future of Financial Advice” legislation (FOFA) came into effect, which prohibits IFP and its representatives from accepting “conflicted remuneration”, subject to certain exceptions. “Conflicted remuneration” is any benefit, monetary or non-monetary that could reasonably be expected to influence the choice of financial product recommended or the financial product advice. This includes commissions, bonuses and rebates, and most volume-based benefits, but there are some exceptions, such as certain levels of remuneration related to life insurance risk products.

Life Insurance Framework Reforms

Under the Life Insurance Framework Reforms (effective as at 1st January 2018), grandfathering arrangements may apply in certain circumstances. This means for all policies that were in place prior to 1st January 2018, the rate of ongoing commission that was applicable at the time that the policy was issued, will continue to apply for the life of the policy. The grandfathering arrangement may also apply to policies issued after 1st January 2018, where you (as the client) exercise an option to establish new or additional cover under your pre-LIF policy or to fix an administrative error on your pre-LIF policy. The relevant commissions applicable to your insurance policies will be disclosed to you in your advice document and can range as follows:

Policy Issue Date	Initial Commission (based on annual policy cost less policy fees and stamp duty) Worked example based on $1,000 initial premium	Ongoing Commission (based on annual policy cost less policy fees and stamp duty) Worked example based on $1,000 annual premium
